49. [QJNJPause] The FDA has given emergency authorization for three COVID-19 vaccines in the US, including a vaccine by Johnson & Johnson that provides protection from COVID-19 in a single dose. So far, more than 6.8 million doses of this vaccine have been administered. Recently, in response to reports that six women who received the Johnson & Johnson COVID-19 vaccine subsequently developed blood clots, the FDA and CDC recommended a pause in the administration of the vaccine.
